

An impressionistic painting of a beach scene. The background is a vast, textured expanse of sky and sea in shades of blue and brown. In the middle ground, several small figures of people are scattered across the beach, some sitting and some standing. A small boat is visible on the right side of the beach. The foreground shows more figures and a large, dark, textured shape that could be a rock or a large object on the sand. The overall style is loose and painterly, with visible brushstrokes and a rich, earthy color palette.
